1:15-2:30 Session 1: Overview of where HathiTrust is and Upcoming Work
John Wilkin, Executive Director, HathiTrust

This session will review HathiTrust accomplishments (e.g., relative to the Short- and Long-term Functional Objectives), the status of key technologies, and challenges facing the partnership. It will include a status report on holdings infrastructure to be used for new cost model and what we know as of the Constitutional Convention; emergent possibilities for lawful uses of in-copyright materials; important emergent trends (e.g., publisher relationships and publishing work).

2:30-3:00 Overview of facilitated sessions, announcements and general business
Abby Smith Rumsey, convener
Alan Matlaga, parliamentarian

Each of the facilitated sessions on Day 2 will consist of discussion around specific ballot initiatives, opportunities for amendment, and a culminating vote. The sessions will be facilitated using a formal structure for discussion and amendment. This session will review the procedural guidelines and provide an opportunity for delegates to raise questions about the Convention, or HathiTrust generally.

3:00-3:30 Break

3:30-5:00 Session 2: Report on 3-year review and Q&A
Ed Van Gemert (University of Wisconsin-Madison) and Trisha Cruse (California Digital Library), members of the Strategic Advisory Board

At the request of member institutions of HathiTrust, a review of HathiTrust was performed in the third year of HathiTrust's operation. The review was prepared by Ithaka S+R in consultation with the Strategic Advisory Board. Ed Van Gemert and Trisha Cruse, members of the Strategic Advisory Board, will give a presentation summarizing the report, provide an SAB perspective, and address questions from attendees.

There will be transportation going back to the Mayflower Renaissance Hotel after Saturday's sessions. Participants to have dinner on their own.
